ABOUT NORWEST PLACE

There is one General Meeting and one Annual Meeting each year to establish policies, house rules and by-laws.

The Board of Directors is elected by the members to oversee operations. Directors are elected to serve a term of three years.

We vote on major expenditures and through discussion pass motions on issues.

Committees are made up of members who volunteer their skills and expertise to assist in the areas of Membership, Finance, Maintenance and Social.

This facility is:

6342 spacious and comfortable with one and two bedroom units with balconies

6343 equipped with an elevator

6344 security entrance

6345 free parking for one car

6346 free laundry on each floor

6347 spacious lounge for members' use

6348 equipped with a pool table and shuffle board
6349 no pets are allowed

MEMBERS ARE EXPECTED

6350 To be in good health upon becoming a member
6351 To be able to work together with others, for the good of all members and to live harmoniously and respect others
6352 To be willing to participate in areas of the co-operative housing

BECOMING A MEMBER OF NORWEST PLACE HOUSING CO-OPERATIVE

A request for an application form from the Membership Chairperson is the first step to becoming a member. This will be followed up by an interview with the Membership Committee.

Shares in the co-operative are purchased as follows:

6353 $100.00 is required with each application
6354 $400.00 is payable when becoming a member

The $500.00 share is refundable when you leave Norwest Place Housing Co-operative. The $100.00 paid with each application is also refundable if you wish to withdraw your application.

Being a Member of Norwest Place Co-operative Housing provides the privilege of living in a facility that we manage ourselves. This is what makes co-operative living affordable.

If you are a retired senior (55+), in good health and willing to volunteer some time, knowledge and expertise to ensure the efficient operation of Norwest Place, we welcome your inquiries.
